7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

9 ALMAYEHU JIMMA,

10 Plaintiff,

CASE NO. C18-0771-RSL

11 v.

12 CITY OF SEATTLE POLICE
DEPARTMENT,

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

13 Defendant.
14

15 Plaintiff Almayehu Jimma, proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis (IFP) in this civil 16 matter, submitted a motion for appointment of counsel. (Dkt. 11.) The motion was referred to 17 the undersigned for a determination. (Dkt. 12.) Having now considered the motion, the Court
18 finds and ORDERS as follows:

19 (1) Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1), “[t]he Court may request an attorney to 20 represent any person unable to afford counsel.” However, there is no right to appointment of 21 counsel in a civil case. See United States v. 30.64 Acres of Land, 795 F.2d 796, 801 (9th Cir.
22 1986). Moreover, the Court may appoint counsel only in exceptional circumstances. Wilborn v.
23 Escalderon, 789 F.2d 1328, 1331 (9th Cir. 1986). “A finding of exceptional circumstances

1 requires an evaluation of both the likelihood of success on the merits and the ability of the
2 plaintiff to articulate his claims pro se in light of the complexity of the legal issues involved.”

3 Id. These factors must be viewed together before reaching a decision on a request for counsel
4 under § 1915(e)(1). Id.

5 Plaintiff provides little to no information in support of his motion for the appointment of
6 counsel. Having considered the motion, as well as plaintiff’s complaint, the Court finds
7 insufficient information to allow for a determination that exceptional circumstances warrant the 8 appointment of counsel. As it stands, plaintiff does not demonstrate a likelihood of success on 9 the merits. Nor is it clear plaintiff is unable to articulate his claims pro se. Accordingly,
10 plaintiff’s motion for appointment of counsel (Dkt. 11) is herein DENIED without prejudice to 11 renewal of the motion at a later date.

12 (2) The Clerk shall send a copy of this Order to plaintiff and to the Honorable Robert
13 S. Lasnik.

14 DATED this 2nd day of August, 2018.
